Consumer Compassion and Client Friendly Service

A 2005 survey was conducted at a local shelter to document clients' point of view on staff, facility and rules. The following was learned:

Facility

Upon entering a shelter most residents felt fearful and very emotional. They...

- Pictured the shelter as not a safe place to stay for their children
- Worried that other residents would be dangerous, addicted, or worse
- Worried about getting along with other residents and staff
- Worried they would not have privacy and would sleep in one large dormitory
- Pictured that the shelter would be dirty and unsavory

Staff

Residents describe a successful helping relationship (with staff members) as F.A.I.R.:

- Facilitative...i.e. helpful.
- Attentive...i.e. focused and genuinely engaged with client.
- Impartial...i.e. non-judgmental and fair across the board to all residents.
- Reassuring...i.e. understanding and hopeful.

Residents know and feel when a staff person genuinely cares about their welfare

Negative interactions with staff include feeling...

- Annoyed
- Belittled – Not necessarily what was said but how it was said (tone of voice, facial expressions, hand gestures, etc.)
- Upset when confidentiality was loosely handled concerning their business and affairs, for example,
 - announcing over the intercom “so and so, your parole officer is on line 1,” or
 - informing a resident that he or she was not accepted to a program in front of others
- Disrespected
- Frustrated when there are ethnic, cultural, or linguistic misunderstandings – i.e. Latino residents surveyed mentioned that they misunderstood enforcement of rules and regulations as staff not liking them
- Disappointed when there was a lack of follow through, even in small things like staff forgetting to lock a bedroom door as requested.

Rules and Regulations

Most residents consider fair rules as equal and necessary. They...

- understand that life has rules,
- respect the shelter's assistance and want to abide with rules to maintain their stay,
- are accepting of consequences if the rules were fair and applied fairly to others,
- need to be heard.

On the negative side they...

- are upset if they think some staff members have favorites who they let slide,
- think some rules are enforced more than others,
- feel that the authority goes too far with some rules and could be more lenient
